Please answer the following questions about yourself. If you are married, include your spouse's information. If you are a dependent student, you must provide parents' information. You are being asked to report all applicable source(s) of income and/or other forms of assistance for the 2008 calendar year to verify the information indicated on the FAFSA. Complete the entire form unless specifically instructed by a financial aid representative otherwise. We will not process your award until this form is properly completed, signed and submitted to the financial aid office.

Section A - Dislocated Worker

Are you, your spouse (if applicable) or your parents (if applicable) considered a dislocated worker? For examples of a dislocated worker see below.

Parent: [] Yes [] No Student: [] Yes [] No

(Examples of a dislocated worker include: job loss (other than quitting), laid off or received a lay-off notice from their job, receiving unemployment benefits due to being laid off or losing a job and are unlikely to return to a previous occupation, self-employed but are unemployed due to economic conditions or natural disaster, or a displaced homemaker).

Section B - 2008 Additional Financial Information & Untaxed Income

Table with 3 columns: Description, Parent, Student. Rows include: Child support paid because of divorce or separation, Taxable earnings from need-based employment programs, Grant and scholarship aid reported to the IRS, Combat pay or special combat pay.

Table with 3 columns: Description, Parent, Student. Rows include: Housing, food and other living allowances paid to members of the military, Veterans' non-education benefits, Other untaxed income not reported, Money received, or paid on your behalf.

Section C – Federal Benefits

Did you receive Federal benefits from any of the programs listed below during the two year time period of January 1, 2007 to December 31, 2008? Check all that apply and indicate if the benefits were received by you and/or your spouse or by your parents.

Program	Months Received (MM/YY)	Received by Parent	Received by Student/Spouse
Social Security Income (untaxed)		<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
Welfare (including TANF)		<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
WIC		<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
Food Stamps		<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
Free and Reduced Price School Lunch Program		<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

Section D – Asset Information

Report the net worth of any investment, asset, business, cash/savings or checking account(s) that you and your spouse or your parents had at the time you completed your FAFSA. If you and your spouse or your parents do not have assets to report, or the assets were underreported on your FAFSA, please use the spaces below to provide the correct figures. If you have no assets to report, place zeroes in the spaces below. The net worth of an asset is calculated by first determining the current value and then subtracting any outstanding debt. Note: if you, your spouse or your parents are not sole owners of the asset, you only report the net worth of the share that is owned by you, your spouse or your parent.

Asset Verification Items	Net Worth for Parent(s)	Net Worth for Student/Spouse
Real Estate (property or land other than the home you or your parent(s) live in)	$	$
Investments (trust funds, CD, stocks)	$	$
Business/Farms (only report if employs more than 100 full-time employees)	$	$
Cash, Savings and/or Checking Account Balance	$	$

Section E – Statement and Certification

If needed provide further explanation regarding support, business, asset and/or any other information deemed necessary by you or the financial aid office (if space is not enough, attach separate sheet).

By signing this worksheet, I (we) certify that all the information reported is complete and correct.
