A minimum of 50 non-art credits are required for this degree. A minor is required for this program.

SPECIAL ADMISSION INFORMATION REGARDING THE SCHOOL OF ART

Acceptance into this program is selective and competitive. There are separate admission requirements, including a College of Fine Arts application, a letter of intent, and an essay. Applicants for admission must meet the general admission requirements to The University of Arizona before being accepted into the Art History program, but admission to the University does not guarantee admission to this program. Consult an academic advisor at The University of Arizona for assistance in selecting the required course work.

PLEASE NOTE: STUDENTS ARE STRONGLY ENCOURAGED TO COMPLETE STU 210, "TRANSFER STRATEGIES" This course offers UA campus visits, meetings with UA staff members who represent the Offices of Admissions, Financial Aid, The Center for Transfer Students and other University resources, and consultation for evaluating transfer timing. This course transfers to the UA as elective credit. See a P.C.C. counselor/advisor about enrolling in STU 210.

Are you certain about your choice of major, or are you still considering your options? If you are not sure, you are encouraged to enroll in STU 107, "University Transfer Preparation" to help with your major decision and to plan your path to successful completion of a bachelor's degree.

You can find contact information for all advisors at The University of Arizona, as well as other resource information, at the Advising Resource Center.
