All College Council

All College Council was created in 2015 by the Governing Board to support the flow of communications on college wide issues between faculty, staff and students and the chancellor.

Specifically, All College Council is charged with making recommendations to the Chancellor on college-wide issues, excluding wages, salaries and working-conditions.

All College Council is made up of faculty, including adjunct faculty, staff, students, administrators and a College president. It is facilitated by a member of the Executive Leadership Team, who is a communications liaison between the Chancellor and ELT and All College Council.

All College Council's role in the governance structure:

Faculty Senate handles all faculty-related issues

Staff Council handles staff-related issues

Student Senate handles student-related issues

All College Council handles college-wide issues that affect all constituent groups.

Items which come to the All College Council include the following: a

- Items that are of broad significance to the College, students and/or employees.
- Information items of interest or importance to the entire College.
- Complex issues involving a choice between multiple options

ALL MEMBERS OF ALL COLLEGE COUNCIL HAVE AN EQUAL VOICE
