Business/Industry Licensure and Certification

Step 1: Student meets with Program Advisor to discuss PLA and other Pima aspects, such as careers, degree plan, etc.

Step 2: Student provides copy of current/valid licensure or certificate
- Yes
  - PLA process stops due to invalid or no license or certificate
- No

Step 3: Student meets with Faculty expert to review valid license or certificate and knowledge acquired
- Yes
  - PLA process stops if licensure is invalid or knowledge is insufficient
- No

Step 4: Student meets with Program Advisor to initiate PLA Electronic Workflow

Step 5: PLA Electronic Request is Submitted for Review and Approval/Denial

---

Business/Industry License or Certificate

Step 1: Student meets with Program Advisor regarding career interests, including PLA and other Pima aspects

Step 2: Student provides copy of current licensure or certification

Step 3: Student meets with Faculty expert to discuss knowledge and learning acquired and licensure/certification

Step 4: If student wishes to pursue PLA for Business/Industry licensure or certification, meet with Program Advisor to initiate PLA Electronic Workflow (i.e. PLA Request)

Step 5: PLA Electronic Workflow is initiated with Advisor Submission and Approval/Denial, Student Review and Approval/Denial, Discipline Coordinator Review (i.e. faculty expert) and Approval/Denial, Dean Review and Approval/Denial, and electronic submission to the Registrar's Office for transcription of credit.