The College complies with the provisions of the Uniformed Services Employment and Reemployment Rights Act of 1994. The legislation prohibits an employer from denying employment, re-employment, retention in employment, promotion or any benefit of employment based on a person's membership in or obligation to perform service in a uniformed service, or retaliating against a person by taking adverse employment action against that person for asserting their rights or testifying in connection with or participating in an investigation pursuant to the Act.
